SOURCE [REDACTED]

1. The Ministry of Construction, which has been militarized, has under its direction a number of special detachments known as the Labor Army. These detachments are employed on work projects considered to be especially important.
2. The Labor Army is composed of individuals called up for military service who are not required by the armed services and persons who have been drafted especially for this duty. Persons suspected by the regime or simply considered to be undesirables are drafted for such service. Former officers of the armed services and Militia who are believed to be unreliable have been drafted in considerable numbers.
